

HOW TO USE THIS DOCUMENT: The document is divided into three columnar sections. The left hand numbered column is for line reference only and does not correlate to any codification or section number. The second column is Title V, the S.A.F.E. Act as written, but placed into sequential sections for easy cross-reference to the state model language. The third column is the minimum draft state model language for the implementation of S.A.F.E. The section numbers (e.g. MSL XX.XXX.010) correlate to the Model State Law (MSL). These sections are aligned with the relevant S.A.F.E. section rather than MSL sequence to afford the reader the ability to read and compare the original to the draft model. Section notes are included for further clarification and are not part of the actual model language. The sections highlighted in yellow in this document have been updated from the initial version release on August 19, 2008.

1	TITLE V—S.A.F.E. MORTGAGE LICENSING ACT	STATE MODEL LANGUAGE FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF TITLE V—S.A.F.E. MORTGAGE LICENSING ACT
2	SEC. 1501. SHORT TITLE. This title may be cited as the “Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act of 2008” or “S.A.F.E. Mortgage Licensing Act of 2008”.	MSL XX.XXX.010 TITLE. This Act may be cited as “The Model State Law for Implementation of Public Law 110-289, Title V., The S.A.F.E. Act.” Section notes: 1. States should note that “this Act” as used throughout the MSL means either this law as a complete law, or a primary state mortgage law that this law has been merged into. When adopting the term “this Act,” states that intend to also mean other state mortgage laws must be careful to include the appropriate reference to those other laws.
3	In order to increase uniformity, reduce regulatory burden, enhance consumer protection, and reduce fraud, the States, through the Conference of State Bank Supervisors and the American Association of Residential Mortgage Regulators, are hereby encouraged to establish a Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry for the residential mortgage industry that accomplishes all of the following objectives: (1) Provides uniform license applications and reporting requirements for State-licensed loan originators. (2) Provides a comprehensive licensing and supervisory database. (3) Aggregates and improves the flow of information to and between regulators. (4) Provides increased accountability and tracking of loan	MSL XX.XXX.020 PURPOSE OF THIS ACT [Optional language for states that do not have language sufficiently covering PL 110-289, Sec. 1508(d)(1)]—The activities of mortgage loan originators and the origination or offering of financing for residential real property have a direct, valuable and immediate impact upon this State's consumers, this State's economy, the neighborhoods and communities of this State, and the housing and real estate industry. The Legislature finds that accessibility to mortgage credit is vital to the state's citizens. The Legislature also finds that it is essential for the protection of the citizens of this State and the stability of the State's economy that reasonable standards for licensing and regulation of the business practices of mortgage loan originators be imposed. The Legislature further finds that the obligations of mortgage loan originators to consumers in

The purpose of this Act is to protect consumers seeking mortgage loans and to ensure that the mortgage lending industry is operating without unfair, deceptive, and fraudulent practices on the part of mortgage loan originators. Therefore the Legislature establishes within this Act: (1) SYSTEM OF SUPERVISION AND ENFORCEMENT—An effective system of supervision and enforcement of the mortgage lending industry, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) The authority to issue licenses to conduct business under this Act, including the authority to write rules or regulations or adopt procedures necessary to the licensing of persons covered under this Act. (b) The authority to deny, suspend, condition or revoke licenses issued under this Act. (c) The authority to examine, investigate and conduct enforcement actions as necessary to carry out the intended purposes of this Act, including the authority to subpoena witnesses and documents, enter orders, including cease and desist orders, order restitution and monetary penalties and order the removal and ban of individuals from office or employment. (2) BROAD ADMINISTRATIVE AUTHORITY—That the Commissioner shall have the broad administrative authority to administer, interpret and enforce this Act, and promulgate rules or regulations implementing this Act, in order to carry out the intentions of the Legislature. Section notes: 1. Throughout this Act, each state will need to determine whether the language should read “Commissioner” only or when applicable some form of “Commissioner and designee.”

7	(3) LOAN ORIGINATOR.— (A) IN GENERAL.—The term “loan originator”— (i) means an individual who— (I) takes a residential mortgage loan application; and (II) offers or negotiates terms of a residential mortgage loan for compensation or gain; (ii) does not include any individual who is not otherwise described in clause (i) and who performs purely administrative or clerical tasks on behalf of a person who is described in any such clause; (iii) does not include a person or entity that only performs real estate brokerage activities and is licensed or registered in accordance with applicable State law, unless the person or entity is compensated by a lender, a mortgage broker, or other loan originator or by any agent of such lender, mortgage broker, or other loan originator; and (iv) does not include a person or entity solely involved in extensions of credit relating to timeshare plans, as that term is defined in section 101(53D) of title 11, United States Code.	(3) MORTGAGE LOAN ORIGINATOR— (a) IN GENERAL—The term “mortgage loan originator”— (i) Means an individual who— (A) Takes a residential mortgage loan application; or (B) Offers or negotiates terms of a residential mortgage loan for compensation or gain; (ii) Does not include any individual who is not otherwise described in clause (i) and who performs purely administrative or clerical tasks on behalf of a person who is described in any such clause; (iii) Does not include a person or entity that only performs real estate brokerage activities and is licensed or registered in accordance with applicable State law, unless the person or entity is compensated by a lender, a mortgage broker, or other mortgage loan originator or by any agent of such lender, mortgage broker, or other mortgage loan originator; and (iv) Does not include a person or entity solely involved in extensions of credit relating to timeshare plans, as that term is defined in section 101(53D) of title 11, United States Code. Section notes: 1. (3)(a)(i)(A) and (B) present a significant problem in the licensing of MLOs. By using the word “and” between (A) and (B) instead of “or” SAFE effectively exempts an extremely large number of loan originators from licensing. The States intend to change “and” to “or”

		as exists in most state laws.
8	(B) OTHER DEFINITIONS RELATING TO LOAN ORIGINATOR.—For purposes of this subsection, an individual “assists a consumer in obtaining or applying to obtain a residential mortgage loan” by, among other things, advising on loan terms (including rates, fees, other costs), preparing loan packages, or collecting information on behalf of the consumer with regard to a residential mortgage loan.	No language needed. Section notes: 1. This definition from SAFE does not support or connect to anything within the law. It is believed to be a definition that was intended to be removed during one of the rounds of amendment.
9	(C) ADMINISTRATIVE OR CLERICAL TASKS.—The term “administrative or clerical tasks” means the receipt, collection, and distribution of information common for the processing or underwriting of a loan in the mortgage industry and communication with a consumer to obtain information necessary for the processing or underwriting of a residential mortgage loan.	(b) ADMINISTRATIVE OR CLERICAL TASKS—The term “administrative or clerical tasks” means the receipt, collection, and distribution of information common for the processing or underwriting of a loan in the mortgage industry and communication with a consumer to obtain information necessary for the processing or underwriting of a residential mortgage loan.
10	(D) REAL ESTATE BROKERAGE ACTIVITY DEFINED.—The term “real estate brokerage activity” means any activity that involves offering or providing real estate brokerage services to the public, including— <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) acting as a real estate agent or real estate broker for a buyer, seller, lessor, or lessee of real property; (ii) bringing together parties interested in the sale, purchase, lease, rental, or exchange of real property; (iii) negotiating, on behalf of any party, any portion of a contract relating to the sale, purchase, lease, rental, or exchange of real property (other than in connection with providing financing with respect to any such transaction); (iv) engaging in any activity for which a person engaged in the activity is required to be registered or licensed as a real estate agent or real estate broker under any applicable law; and (v) offering to engage in any activity, or act in any capacity, described in clause (i), (ii), (iii), or (iv). 	(c) REAL ESTATE BROKERAGE ACTIVITY DEFINED— For purposes of this Act the term “real estate brokerage activity” means any activity that involves offering or providing real estate brokerage services to the public, including— <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) Acting as a real estate agent or real estate broker for a buyer, seller, lessor, or lessee of real property; (ii) Bringing together parties interested in the sale, purchase, lease, rental, or exchange of real property; (iii) Negotiating, on behalf of any party, any portion of a contract relating to the sale, purchase, lease, rental, or exchange of real property (other than in connection with providing financing with respect to any such transaction); (iv) Engaging in any activity for which a person engaged in the activity is required to be registered or licensed as a real estate agent or real estate broker under any applicable law; and (v) Offering to engage in any activity, or act in any capacity, described in subsections (i), (ii), (iii), or (iv) of this section. 		1. Minor change from SAFE in intro sentence.
11	(4) LOAN PROCESSOR OR UNDERWRITER.— (A) IN GENERAL.—The term “loan processor or underwriter” means an individual who performs clerical or support duties at the direction of and subject to the supervision and instruction of— (i) a State-licensed loan originator; or (ii) a registered loan originator.	Definition amended and moved to line 23.
12	(B) CLERICAL OR SUPPORT DUTIES.—For purposes of subparagraph (A), the term “clerical or support duties” may include— (i) the receipt, collection, distribution, and analysis of information common for the processing or underwriting of a residential mortgage loan; and (ii) communicating with a consumer to obtain the information necessary for the processing or underwriting of a loan, to the extent that such communication does not include offering or negotiating loan rates or terms, or counseling consumers about residential mortgage loan rates or terms.	Definition amended and moved to line 23.
13	(5) NATIONWIDE MORTGAGE LICENSING SYSTEM AND REGISTRY.—The term “Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry” means a mortgage licensing system developed and maintained by the Conference of State Bank Supervisors and the American Association of Residential Mortgage Regulators for the State licensing and registration of State-licensed loan originators and the registration of registered loan originators or any system established by the Secretary under section 1509.	(4) NATIONWIDE MORTGAGE LICENSING SYSTEM AND REGISTRY—The term “Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry” means a mortgage licensing system developed and maintained by the Conference of State Bank Supervisors and the American Association of Residential Mortgage Regulators for the licensing and registration of licensed mortgage loan originators. Section notes: 1. Eliminated last part of last sentence from SAFE.
14	(6) NONTRADITIONAL MORTGAGE PRODUCT.— The term “nontraditional mortgage product” means any mortgage product other than a 30-year fixed rate mortgage.	No language needed. Section notes: 1. Provided an education program covering nontraditional mortgage products exists for mortgage loan originators, there is no need for definition. Further, some states define this term, and provided the

15		(5) PERSON—The term “person” means a natural person, corporation, company, limited liability corporation, partnership, or association. Section notes: 1. SAFE only contemplates “individuals.” However, the industry is structured from a company perspective as are most State systems of supervision. Specific sections of the MSL have been drafted to recognize the nature of entity control, making this new definition necessary.

		1. Pursuant to Regulation Z, §226.2(a)(19): Dwelling means a residential structure that contains 1 to 4 units, whether or not that structure is attached to real property. The term includes an individual condominium unit, cooperative unit, mobile home, and trailer, if it is used as a residence.
18	(9) SECRETARY.—The term “Secretary” means the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.	No language needed.
19	(10) STATE.—The term “State” means any State of the United States, the District of Columbia, any territory of the United States, Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, the Virgin Islands, and the Northern Mariana Islands.	No language needed.
20	(11) STATE-LICENSED LOAN ORIGINATOR.—The term “State-licensed loan originator” means any individual who— (A) is a loan originator; (B) is not an employee of— (i) a depository institution; (ii) a subsidiary that is— (I) owned and controlled by a depository institution; and (II) regulated by a Federal banking agency; or (iii) an institution regulated by the Farm Credit Administration; and (C) is licensed by a State or by the Secretary under section 1508 and registered as a loan originator with, and maintains a unique identifier through, the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry.	No language needed.
21	(12) UNIQUE IDENTIFIER.— (A) IN GENERAL.—The term “unique identifier” means a number or other identifier that— (i) permanently identifies a loan originator; (ii) is assigned by protocols established by the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry and the Federal banking agencies to facilitate electronic tracking of loan originators and uniform identification of, and public access to, the	(8) UNIQUE IDENTIFIER—The term “unique identifier” means a number or other identifier assigned by protocols established by the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry. Each licensed mortgage loan originator must register with and maintain a valid unique identifier issued by the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry. (2) EFFECTIVE DATE—In order to facilitate an orderly transition to licensing and minimize disruption in the mortgage marketplace, the effective date for subsection (1) of this section shall be [DATE]. (3) EXEMPTION FROM THIS ACT—Registered Mortgage Loan Originators, when acting for an entity described in MSL XX.XXX.030(6)(a)(i),(ii) or (iii) are exempt from this Act. Section notes: 1. In (1), a state may wish to supplant “shall not” with “may not” or similar wording. 2. It is imperative that states understand that existing exemptions from licensing will need to be scrutinized in each law. Any exemptions that conflict with SAFE may put the state in a position of non-compliance since the State language would allow a “lesser” degree of coverage than SAFE. 3. (2) The Industry and State regulators have raised significant concerns

		about the volume of existing licensees converting to this Act as well as the volume of new applicants applying under this Act. In order to facilitate the licensing transition and avoid an undue backlog in application requests, each state will choose the date upon which a license must be held. 4. (3) references Registered Mortgage Loan Originator definition and makes it clear that RMLOs are exempt from this Act, but only when they are working for the exempt entity. In other words, dual employment with both a bank and a mortgage broker would require registering under the federal system and licensing under the state system. 5. “Exemption from this Act” does not have the same meaning as “License Not Required.” The latter still may subject the person to certain coverage and enforcement authorities under the Act.
24	(b) LOAN PROCESSORS AND UNDERWRITERS.— (1) SUPERVISED LOAN PROCESSORS AND UNDERWRITERS.—A loan processor or underwriter who does not represent to the public, through advertising or other means of communicating or providing information (including the use of business cards, stationery, brochures, signs, rate lists, or other promotional items), that such individual can or will perform any of the activities of a loan originator shall not be required to be a State-licensed loan originator. (2) INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS.—An independent contractor may not engage in residential mortgage loan origination activities as a loan processor or underwriter unless such independent contractor is a State-licensed loan originator.	(4) LOAN PROCESSOR OR UNDERWRITER— (a) IN GENERAL.—The term “loan processor or underwriter” means an individual who performs clerical or support duties as an employee at the direction of and subject to the supervision and instruction of a person licensed, or exempt from licensing under [reference appropriate state mortgage licensing laws here]. (b) CLERICAL OR SUPPORT DUTIES.—For purposes of subparagraph (A), the term “clerical or support duties” may include— (i) the receipt, collection, distribution, and analysis of information common for the processing or underwriting of a residential mortgage loan; and (ii) communicating with a consumer to obtain the information necessary for the processing or underwriting of a loan, to the extent that such communication does not include offering or negotiating loan rates or terms, or counseling consumers about residential mortgage loan rates or terms. (c) LICENSE NOT REQUIRED—An individual engaging solely in loan processor or underwriter activities, who does not represent to the public, through advertising or other means of communicating or providing information including the use of business cards, stationery, brochures, signs, rate lists, or other

Each independent contractor loan processor or underwriter licensed as a mortgage loan originator must have and maintain a valid unique identifier issued by the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry. (5) COMMISSIONER AUTHORITY TO ESTABLISH LICENSING RULES, REGULATIONS OR INTERIM PROCEDURES AND ACCEPT EARLY APPLICATIONS—For the purposes of implementing an orderly and efficient licensing process the Commissioner may establish licensing rules or regulations and interim procedures for licensing and acceptance of applications. For previously registered or licensed individuals the Commissioner may establish expedited review and licensing procedures. Section notes: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. (4)(a): The reference to “appropriate state mortgage licensing law” in (a) is because some states may have multiple statutes covering licensed activity. 2. 	upon such terms and conditions and within such time as the Secretary may specify in such order. Any such order may, as the Secretary deems appropriate, require future compliance or steps to effect future compliance, either permanently or for such period of time as the Secretary may specify, with such provision or regulation with respect to any loan originator. (2) HEARING.—The notice instituting proceedings pursuant to paragraph (1) shall fix a hearing date not earlier than 30 days nor later than 60 days after service of the notice unless an earlier or a later date is set by the Secretary with the consent of any respondent so served. (3) TEMPORARY ORDER.—Whenever the Secretary determines that the alleged violation or threatened violation specified in the notice instituting proceedings pursuant to paragraph (1), or the continuation thereof, is likely to result in significant dissipation or conversion of assets, significant harm to consumers, or substantial harm to the public interest prior to the completion of the proceedings, the Secretary may enter a temporary order requiring the respondent to cease and desist from the violation or threatened violation and to take such action to prevent the violation or threatened violation and to prevent dissipation or conversion of assets, significant harm to consumers, or substantial harm to the public interest as the Secretary deems appropriate pending completion of such proceedings. Such an order shall be entered only after notice and opportunity for a hearing, unless the Secretary determines that notice and hearing prior to entry would be impracticable or contrary to the public interest. A temporary order shall become effective upon service upon the respondent and, unless set aside, limited, or suspended by the Secretary or a court of competent jurisdiction, shall remain effective and enforceable pending the completion of the proceedings. (4) REVIEW OF TEMPORARY ORDERS.— (A) REVIEW BY SECRETARY.—At any time after the respondent has been served with a temporary
